

UKDILAS

UK Drugs in Lactation Advisory Service

Committed to providing evidence based information and practical advice on the use of medicines during breastfeeding

- Enquiry answering service
Includes evidence-based risk assessment for individual patients
- Factsheets
Q&As on frequently used medicines
- Database
Summary guidance on all medicines

www.sps.nhs.uk/ukdilas

0116 258 6491/ 0121 424 7298 (Mon–Fri 09.00–17.00)

ukdilas.enquiries@nhs.net

@ukdilas

How to find the Drugs in Lactation Database Information

Go to the SPS website:
www.sps.nhs.uk

Search for your medicine

omeprazole

Medicines Services Networks About SPS

Click on the specific medicine from the displayed list

Search results for: omeprazole

“omeprazole” x	Reset
Medicines	Amoxicillin + Omeprazole + Rifabutin DM+D: Unassigned
Medicines	Omeprazole + Aspirin DM+D: Unassigned
Medicines	Esomeprazole DM+D: 317331009
Medicines	Omeprazole DM+D: 25673006
Medicines	Ketoprofen + Omeprazole

Scroll down the monograph to the lactation safety information

Lactation Safety Information

Use when breastfeeding	Yes
Alternative	Pantoprazole
Comments	Likely to be degraded in infant's GI tract Limited published evidence of safety
Therapeutic group summary	Safety in Lactation: Proton pump inhibitors (PPIs)
Reviewed	20th May 2012
Evidence link	Q&A

Links to further information:

- Therapeutic Group Summary
An overview on the use of particular groups of medicines in breastfeeding
- Medicines Q & As
Fact sheets on frequently used medicines in breastfeeding

www.sps.nhs.uk