

SPS supporting General Practice

Tools

Medicines tools to help guide practice in specific areas including medicines monitoring, filling medicines compliance aids, and medicines supply

Guidance

Supporting your practice across a range of areas, including liver disease, lipid therapy, food supplements, and excipients

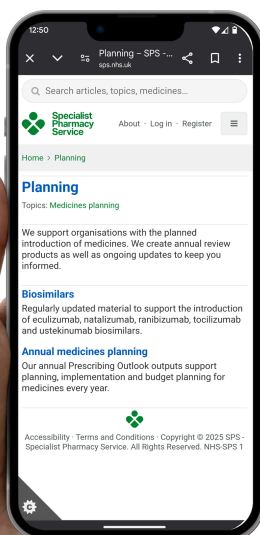

Training

Facilitating upskilling and further development across a range of specialty areas including polypharmacy, switching, swallowing difficulties, and complementary medicines

Podcasts & Webinars

Covering a variety of Medicines Optimisation issues including the primary care discussion webinar series and pharmacy technician conversation podcast series

SPS medicines advice service

NHS healthcare professionals can contact us for expert clinical medicines advice

When you contact us, be ready to provide your:

- full name & place of work
- question, including the background
- preferred answer route
- urgency of your request

 0300 770 8564

 asksp.s.nhs@sps.direct

www.sps.nhs.uk

The first stop for professional medicines advice

